 I'm With Them	<h2 style="margin: 0;">What is Polyamory?</h2> Panel Discussion Monday, April 11th, 2011 7:00 – 9:00 PM The Junction Pub, 1138 Davie Street, Vancouver, BC (19 yrs & over)
---	---

Polyamorists practice a new form of ethical and principled non-monogamy which requires the informed knowledge and consent of all partners and embraces gender equality. Polyamorous relationships can include a variety of gender combinations and sexual orientations

This forum will provide polyamorists and those who are curious about Polyamory with an opportunity to discuss the benefits and challenges of this growing approach to consensual multiple-person relationships.

Janet W. Hardy is a writer and sex educator, and founder of Greenery Press, living in Oregon, USA. She has also been published as Catherine A. Liszt and Lady Green. She is the author or co-author of ten books, including what is commonly referred to as the Polyamory Bible: The Ethical Slut. She frequently collaborates with Dossie Easton.

Terisa Greenan has a sharp wit and impeccable comedic timing. Based in Seattle, she is a writer, having penned numerous short stories and two adapted screenplays with much original content. In addition, Terisa has directed and produced for both stage and screen. She formed Petal Films in 2007. In the fall of 2008 Terisa launched 3 Dog Pictures to showcase her new episodic web series "Family", a series depicting a Polyamorous Triad.

John Ince is a lawyer, writer and sex educator. He is the author of The Politics of Lust, a study of social attitudes towards sexuality. He is legal counsel for the Canadian Polyamory Advocacy Association and co-owner of The Art of Loving, a sexuality store in Vancouver .

Kiki Christie is the founder and facilitator of Victoria Poly 101, a polyamory discussion group in Victoria, British Columbia of over 150 members. She's been a bi/kinky/poly educator and activist for over 6 years and has given workshops for various poly groups in British Columbia as well as in Washington state and Austin, Texas. She is a member of the Canadian Polyamory Advocacy Association and she is currently the Director for Vancouver Island Polycamp

For more information visit: www.vanpoly.ca and <http://polyadvocacy.ca/what-is-polyamory>